NOVEMBER ELECTION COMES NEXT TUESDAY

AMENDMENTS CAUSE MOST OF INTEREST

Very Little Opposition Is Expected to State Ticket

JUDGES ARE NAMED

Ballot Is Printed In This Issue of News

The general election will be held in Texas next Tuesday. Little interest is expected in this election owing to the fact that it is taken for granted that the Democratic nominees will win by the usual lopsided majority. A statement from Republican headquarters may arouse some interest in the election. This statement appears in this issue of the News.

Marvin Jones, congressman from this district, has two opponents, James M. Kernan, a Republican; and R. D. Tomlinson, a Socialist.

H. K. Stanfield, state representative, has a Republican opponent, Wm. T. Pheiffer.

Judge E. C. Nelson, district judge, has an opponent on the Republican ticket, George L. Shannon.

None of the local candidates are opposed.

The election ballot is printed in six columns.

The eight constitutional amendments printed at the bottom of the ballots have created considerable interest the past few weeks. The opponents of the ammendments have been very active, while those who favor two of them have been campaigning in their favor.

Absentee votes may be cast in person up to Saturday, Nov. 3; or will be received by mail up to Nov. 4, states County Clerk Berl E. Mayfield.

The change in the election law provides that the election judges shall telephone the County Clerk the results as soon as the vote is counted. Mrs. Berl E. Mayfield will be at her office to receive the returns. Owing to the slight interest in the election, The News will not conduct a bulletin board.

The following are election judges in the various precincts:

No. 1, C. R. Flesher.
No. 2, J. J. Leavitt.
No. 3, T. V. Slack.
No. 4, Emil Schaeffer.
No. 5, James E. Park.
No. 6, John Haines.
No. 7, Geo. Mason.
No. 8, W. P. Jansen.
No. 9, Joe Kimble.

Farmers Meet Tuesday; Agricultural Council is Formed

Upon invitation of County Agent W. H. Upchurch, twenty-one farmers from every section of Randall county met at the court house Tuesday evening and formed the Agricultural Council. J. P. Hix was elected president, and Jeff Wallace was elected secretary.

The council is a state wide organization, formed in order that messages of importance may be taken by the County Agents directly to the farmers through these organizations. Several names will be added to the membership so as to include each and every farm interest in the county.

Buying seed and the handling of the same was discussed Tuesday night.

Delegates will be sent from this organization to the Texas Agricultural Association at Dallas on Dec. 3-6.

Clyde Warwick explained the constitutional amendments which are to be voted upon next Tuesday, stressing those which affect this county.

C. S. Dison of Frick was here Monday on business.

Electric Rates Are Lowered In Canyon

New Rate Is Applied to Home Consumers in City

The Texas Utilities Company thru its local management announced today that effective on all electric bills rendered to residential users on November 1, the top step heretofore figured at 11 cents for the first 25 kilowatt hours will be reduced to 10 cents. The statement will apply to current consumed after September 20 and is the second rate adjustment downward to domestic or residential users in the last five years. It is of special significance that the prices of practically all commodities have made sharp advances in recent months but the further reduction in electric rates at this time is made in the hope that all patrons of the company will avail themselves of the splendid opportunities for improvement in home lighting and at a cost lower even than the reasonable charges heretofore made. The importance of proper lighting from many angles is recognized more than ever before.

To those who have observed the company's operations since the various cities and towns were provided with electric service it will be recalled that no effort has been spared to render an absolute dependable supply of electric energy and always at fair and reasonable charges.

Including the rate reduction announced today, the company, according to W. L. Pearson, local manager, has made seven reductions within the past five years. These have been made applicable to and distributed among all commercial and residential users, to city and municipal services in water pumping cost reductions as well

Amendments Are Discussed Tuesday at Rotary

Clyde Warwick discussed the eight constitutional amendments Tuesday at the Rotary luncheon. He is chairman of the Public Information committee. He presented the arguments which had been made both for and against each amendment. He condemned the first and third amendments as being dangerous, leaving the others open for the members to draw their own conclusion.

Chas. Dickey and Bill Smith entertained the club with two musical numbers.

John Schramm was given an ovation for having furnished venison for the meal as a result of his deer hunt in Arizona.

The birthdays of Joe Hill, Clyde Warwick and Bill Smith were recognized.

Bob Foster was complimented on the birth of his son last week.

The following visitors were present: Bob Barnett, C. R. DeArmond, B. F. Fronabarger, Travis Shaw, Grady Oldham, Burney Slack, Carl Hair, B. B. Cluck, E. J. Dunn, all of Canyon; Mack West, Phil Purdum, H. S. Persons, R. A. Ford, N. S. Griggs, C. R. McAfee, Guy Saunders, all of Amarillo; Fred Rayzer of Denton.

County Executive Committee to Meet Saturday Afternoon

A successor as County Chairman to A. M. Smith, deceased, will be named Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock when members of the County Executive Committee will meet at the court house.

Members of the committee who were named in the primary election were: W. C. Black, J. J. Leavitt, Joe Kimble, James E. Park, George Mason, E. N. Zachry, and Louis Wieck.

Mr. Smith was re-elected in the first primary to serve during the coming two years.

Counties in West Texas Work Passage of Amendment

H. G. Secrest, superintendent of the public schools of Rankin, was here Monday working in the interest of the last constitutional amendment which is printed on the election ballots, referring to school taxes on the University lands. A campaign is being made in West Texas by the school leaders of 17 counties in which this land is located. Mr. Secrest is an ex-student of W. T., and while here met many friends.

According to the information put out here by Secrest, the school districts of these 17 counties are asking for only $12,337.75 annually. This would be paid out of the 25 million permanent fund of the University and A. & M. College, which fund is the result of the oil taken from these lands.

The proposed amendment changes the present constitutional provision allowing taxes only for county purpose, which are paid out of the state treasury, rather than out of the university permanent fund.

Mr. Secrest states that the people of West Texas are approving this amendment after it is explained to them.

Hill and Jarrett Present Needs to Education Board

President J. A. Hill and Dean R. P. Jarrett were in Austin Monday and Tuesday to discuss with the State Board of Education the needs of W. T. for the coming two years, and to discuss the work which was being carried on in the college.

Representatives of all state educational institutions in Texas were present and the work of all institutions were discussed. Reports on the work of each has been previously filed with the board.

Mrs. Marion Witt is spending a few days in Amarillo with her niece, Mrs. Edgar Brown, before leaving for McGregor where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Bertha Amsler.

Republicans Made Appeal For Support

Several Candidates Are Named and Voters Are Solicited

Meeting the needs of Texas for a two-party system, the Republican Party is offering four Panhandle men for office in the general election of November 6.

Time and time again it has been shown just how much Texas needs two political parties, Republican leaders point out, especially during the last few years when so much relief money has been given out.

As an example, the Republicans quote an article in a recent issue of the New York Times, a Democratic newspaper. The Times shows where South Dakota, a doubtful or two-party state, paid only $1.86 internal revenue per capita up to June of 1934, yet received in emergency grants and allotments of $49.54 per capita. North Dakota, also a two-party state, paid out $2.53 per capita and received $47.01. Yet Texas paid out $10.39 per capita in internal revenue and received only $28.69 in emergency grants and allotments!

In naming its candidates, leaders of the Republican party passed a resolution voicing their belief in the two-party system as the truly American method by which the best results can be obtained under a Republican form of government, by which the attention of the voters may be focussed upon issues, rather than on personalities and through which the people may make their will be known and effective.

"We believe that Texas will attain that measure of good, efficient and economical government, and that high standard of public service, for which all good citizens earnestly labor, only through the watchfulness, the interest and the political competition guaranteed by a two-party government."

Republicans of the Panhandle have nominated the following citizens as candidates: S. E. Fish, judge of the court of criminal appeals; James M. Kernan, representative in congress from the 18th congressional district; George I. Shannon, judge of the 47th district court of Texas, and William T. Pheiffer, state representative from the 123rd district of Texas.

Hundreds Attend P. T. A. Carnival Tuesday Night

The largest crowd ever to assemble at the Canyon high school gathered Tuesday night for the P. T. A. Carnival. The building was filled with citizens who enjoyed a continuous program of fun and frolic from 7:00 until 10:30 o'clock.

Children from every grade participated in the program, while most of the side-shows and stunts were conducted by students of the high school and the teachers.

The final event of the evening was the program put on by various organizations of the community.

Proceeds from the Carnival amounted to $114.40, after all expenses were paid.

The Legion Auxiliary won $2 for the best stunt; the American Legion won $3.50 for taking in the most money at their booth.

The next P. T. A. meeting will be held the third Thursday in November. The study groups will meet the 2nd and 4th Thursdays; the elementary group at 2:30 and the high school group at 3:30.

The Mother Singers organized Wednesday afternoon. The next meeting will be Nov. 14, when all mothers interested in music are asked to meet for the start of the program.

District Agent Scores Pantries of Club Members

Last Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Miss Ruby Mashburn, District Home Agent, and Miss Sadie Kate Bass scored eleven Farm Food Supply Demonstrations in the various Home Demonstration Clubs over the county.

Those entering the contest were Mrs. D. C. McCormick, Zita; Mrs. John Coburn, Park; Mrs. John Haines, Lakeside; Mrs. Clarence Stalling, Sunny Hill; Mrs. E. W. Schaeffer, Centerview; Mrs. E. J. Bauer, Johnson; Mrs. Noah Grimes, Garrison; Mrs. C. P. Robertson, Jowell; Mrs. C. S. Sanford, Edgetown; Mrs. C. L. Gordon-Cummings, Westside, and Mrs. Carl Fuqua, Hyland.

The pantries were scored on the following basis:

1.	Filling budget	50
2.	Storage	25
3.	Labeling and arranging on shelves	10
4.	Pictures, before and after	5
5.	Story	10
		100

Those ladies winning places were: First, Mrs. D. C. McCormick, Zita, with a score of 97 points; Mrs. John Coburn and Mrs. C. L. Gordon-Cummings tied for second place with 93 points; Mrs. Noah Grimes placed third with a score of 91; and Mrs. E. J. Bauer received honorable mention, having a score of 90 points.

A $5.00 prize was given Mrs. McCormick for winning first place.

Of the eleven pantries scored there were three that had been made this year. Two of them were cellars and the other storage was built in the house. 533 shelves have been added in the other 8. In the eleven pantries there are 7,391 quarts of fruits, vegetables and meats valued at $1,809.83.

Congressman Jones Sends Volumes to the County Library

The public library has received eleven valuable reference volumes through the assistance of Congressman Marvin Jones.

The new books are yearbooks of the United States Department of Agriculture and contain maps, statistics and articles of interest to farmers, merchants and students of agriculture.

479 WHEAT CHECKS ARE READY HERE

221 Farmers Will Be Paid in the Near Future

DROUTH INSURANCE

Money Comes at Period of Great Need for Farmers

Randall county farmers are receiving $110,000 on 1934 wheat at the office of County Agent W. H. Upchurch. 479 checks were received this week, and notices were mailed to those wheat raisers who were included in the payments.

There are still outstanding checks on 221 contracts which have not been received. The checks are issued in lots of 100, and mailed on different days. This shipment includes checks for the balance of 1933 allotment and for the 1934 payment. No word has been received from Washington as to the time these checks will be received here. Farmers will be notified as quickly as the checks are received.

The checks received this week come at a most opportune time for the farmers. Winter is just starting in, with the demands for fuel, heavy clothing, and tax paying time is only a few weeks off. Most of the farmers will be faced with the necessity of buying feed for their stock during the winter months.

The wheat allotment of this year amounted to practically drouth insurance by the government, owing to the small yield which was made in any section of the county. This fact makes the checks all the more welcomed by the farmers as they receive them.

Farmers who have received notice that their checks are ready are requested to call for them promptly since the government asks that all checks be deposited as soon as possible.

Exhibit of Palo Duro Park Taken to State Office

J. B. Elliston returned home Thursday from Austin where he took the display from the Palo Duro State Park which was exhibited at the Dallas State Fair. This exhibit will be on display at the office of D. E. Colp, chairman of the State Parks Board, in Austin.

Mr. Colp expressed great satisfaction at the interest shown in the exhibit by the thousands who viewed it at the Dallas Fair. So complete and attractive was the exhibit that Mr. Colp wished to have it in Austin where many visitors from all of Texas will be able to see more regarding the Park.

Mr. Elliston will assemble more material which will be used in other exhibits of the Palo Duro.

Hereford Lions Put on Big Program for Rotary

The Canyon Rotary Club members were guests of the Hereford Lions Club Monday night at the annual Hallowe'en party of the Hereford Club. Thirty-six Rotarians and Rotary Anns attended the meeting.

A short program was given by the Canyon delegation. In the absence of President Bob Jarrett, Vice President Irby Carruth presided. The following numbers were given:

Piano Solo, Miss Freda Charles Bills.
Tap dance, Miss Nell McNeely.
Reading, Bill Smith.
Talk on Service Clubs, Clyde Warwick.

The Lions then took charge with all kinds of Hallowe'en pranks, entertainment, and initiation of the new members.

TUESDAY'S ELECTION

The nation will engage in the general election next Tuesday which will be a test of President Roosevelt, and the New Deal. It is taken for granted that the Democrats will lose a number of places in Congress, which were filled during the popular landslide for Roosevelt two years ago. However, it is almost conceded by Republican leaders that the Democrats will hold a safe majority in both houses.

While the rest of the nation is balloting for or against the President, Texas will be struggling over the eight constitutional amendments which are printed at the bottom of the election tickets. During the past week more opposition has developed against these amendments, so that the voters may be so confused next Tuesday that they will vote against all of them in order to make sure that none of the bad ones pass.

Unfortunately the amendments are not numbered on the ballots, and the way in which they are presented is so confusing that few people will be able to make out what they are about. The News discussed these amendments at length last week, and came to the following conclusions:

No. one is dangerous, and of unknown meaning.

No. two has merit and could be of great benefit.

No. three is the worst amendment ever presented to the people of Texas.

No. 4 is good.

No. 5 is not an emergency, but might prove to be worth a great deal at some future time.

Nos. 6 and 7 are inconsistent in nature. They refer only to Home Rule cities of 5,000 population or more.

No. 8 is being opposed by friends of the University of Texas and the friends of A. & M. College.

Practically all discussion on all these amendments come from those opposing them. Governor-elect James V. Allred has sponsored the passage of No. one, which provides for a classification of property for taxation purposes. The amendment is clearly one to attempt to place more taxes on certain classes of people. But by the wording many good lawyers are of the opinion that its adoption will abolish the $3,000 homestead exemption now in force, and will create bitter sectional strife as sections of the state and industries line up against each other to try to soak the other fellow.

No. 2 would give the commissioners' court more authority over local officers and salaries. According to the sponsors, this amendment will greatly reduce the cost of local government.

No. 3 would limit the amount of money which the legislature could collect. 81% of all state taxes go to the schools and highways, while all other departments of government receive only 19%. If the legislature is limited in collection of taxes, the school fund and the highway fund will suffer. This amendment originated in New York city and was sent by the big corporations to every state in the Union. Texas was the only state which was gullible enough to not see the joker in the amendment. If the amendment is adopted one of two things will happen; either the school and highway funds will be greatly reduced, or local taxes will greatly increase. The big corporations are the only ones which would profit by this amendment, while the local home owners would have to make up the difference or let their schools and highways suffer.

No. 4 would abolish the fee system in the large counties, which would be an excellent idea.

No. 5 would set up the machinery whereby counties could consolidate if the people voted to do so. There can be no objection to this amendment, as each county must vote separately for consolidation, and it must be approved by two-thirds of the legislature. There is now no method of consolidating counties. This amendment might not be used in many years, but since it is submitted, there is no harm in adopting it.

No. 6 provides that Home Rule cities may amend their charters every twelve months, instead of every twenty-four months; while No. 7 provides that Home Rule cities may elect their officers for four years instead of two years. If all officers were good, the four years' term would be the best thing for all officials; but the people like to get rid of many officials at the end of two years. Civic leaders do not like to see cities torn up with frequent elections, but if No. 6 is adopted, agitators may keep things stirred up so as to force annual elections.

No. 8 refers to taxing university lands for school purposes. The people approved the amendment two years ago to tax university lands and to pay the bill out of the state general fund, as is the case in counties where penitentiary lands are located. This present amendment adds local school districts, and provides that the taxes be paid out of the university funds. Friends of the University and A. & M. state that this will greatly handicap the growth of these institutions by using the money for taxes which might have gone into University and A. & M. buildings.

Voters should not pass up the amendments at the bottom of their ballots. These are the only questions really involved in this election as it is taken forgranted that the Democratic ticket in Texas will win without serious opposition.

The Centennial celebration has had a very unfriendly reception in the legislature, which may greatly handicap the celebration. Perhaps the legislature is not altogether to blame, considering the fact that the people have demanded lower taxes. The state is $10,000,000 in the red; the people have voted $20,000,000 relief bonds, and may demand another issue unless general rains fall very soon. Some citizens have expressed great surprise that the utilities would object to being taxed to pay for the Centennial. This is no surprise when you realize once a tax is imposed, it is almost certain to become permanent, as the legislature will always find some use for the money. Possibly the greatest mistake was made in selecting the site for the Centennial before the appropriation bill and the tax bill were passed. At the present time every section of the state is attempting to get a part of the Centennial money, which has greatly handicapped the possibilities of a real celebration.

In strong Republican centers appeal is being made to voters to reject the benefits of the New Deal and go back to the old order of selfish monopolistic government. But the voters are mindful of the fact that government responded in the hour of their greatest need; that government is doing everything in its power to restore a safe and sane individualism which is so badly needed in the world, but which cannot survive under present conditions.

Having a winning football team is a splendid thing, provided the men on the team are gentlemen, and play the game in a true sportsman spirit. Athletics played under any but strict rules and fair play descends to the unmanly period of the Roman gladiator. It is unfortunate when athletes believe they are supreme in their position, and can get away with ungentlemenly conduct, and unfair practices.

Speaking of beer, Dr. Gustav Von Bunge, noted scientist, physician and professor of physiology in the University of Switzerland, said: "Beer is the most harmful of all alcoholic drinks. No other leads so easily to intemperance."

SCORE IS 9-0 FOR SOONERS

Bronchos Dedicate New Grid Plant With Victory

A great defensive team from Central State Okla. Teachers College met a great defensive team from the West Texas State Teachers College and capitalized on breaks to emerge victorious, 9 to 0, before a large homecoming crowd in Edmond, Saturday.

Punting into strong wind that almost blew the ball back in their faces, the Buffaloes were backed up to their 17-yard line in the middle of the first quarter. Haught passed to Frost for a first down on the Buff 7. Three tries at the line proved futile, and on the last down, Haught passed the ball, lieing nearly on the ground as a horde of crimson shirted Buffaloes charged him, into the waiting hands of Wade for the first score.

Safety on Fumble

Although the Buff line broke through to block the try for extra point, an offside penalty gave the Bronchos a second try and Haught converted.

Once more backed up on the goal line by an unfavorable wind, Cagle Teague, Buff fullback, fumbled a pass from center as he attempted to punt from behind his goal line, and Barnard, Central right end, fell on Teague for the safety.

The safety occurred on the first play in the second quarter just as the Buffs were getting the wind behind them. However, soon after the change of direction of the teams, the strong wind died down.

The game was featured by the defense of both teams. After the two scores, neither team made a real threat to score. Two large, heavy lines, both averaging close to 190 pounds, battled for two quarters with neither side able to produce a score. Capt. John Walker, 210 pound tackle for the Buffaloes, was the outstanding man of the game as he broke through time after time into the Broncho backfield.

Last Game At Home On Friday

Las Vegas Cowboys To Meet Buffaloes Here

West Texas students and Buffalo grid fans will have their last opportunity of the season to see Capt. Walker and company perform on their home gridiron next Friday night when they meet the New Mexico Normal Cowboys of Las Vegas.

This season has been a season of ups and downs for the Buffaloes. they started off the season with great prospects of having a winning ball club. Then in their first game they looked like they were lost on the football field.

However, in their next game the Buffaloes met the Oklahoma Champions, and on a gamble, after playing some great ball, were beaten 9 to 0. On the next week end the Buffs met a very strong Texas School of Mines team from El Paso, and met their stride to send the Miners home with a 20 to 6 defeat.

At Roswell for their first trip of the season the Buffaloes played their best ball of the season to that point, and with Buff blockers mowing down opposition with machinelike precision took the Cadets for a 47 to 0 ride.

Six days after they had played a sensational football game, displaying real power, the Buffs met McMurry in the Silver Anniversary Home-Coming game. As the saying goes the Buffaloes "looked like Ned in the first reader" and lost 17 to 7 to the Redskins. Captain Walker saw very little service in the McMurry game because he was sick, but the following week he led a team minus five regulars to Edmond and it was only after the bitterest of fights and a few breaks that the Bronchos of Coach Claude Reeds were able to paste a 9 to 0 defeat on the Buffaloes.

In losing to the Bronchos, the Buffaloes found themselves after all the "trials and tribulations," and next Friday night the Cowboys are very liable to find the going "just a little tough."

From Las Vegas the Cowboys are crying about the one point margin last year when they were defeated 7 to 6, and are coming to Canyon wanting revenge.

Win or lose now is the time to show a bunch of spirited boys that would fight their hearts out for West Texas, that through ups and downs, the school is behind them. Game time is eight o'clock. Be there and help the Buffaloes initiate a successful winding up this topsy-turvy season.

An idea is of no use until you put it to work.

Vote For Men ==Not Parties!

The greatest asset of a democratic government is an organized minority! No truer philosophy of government has ever been written.

Texas has been a one-party state since its admission in the Union. Consequently it has been completely forgotten in all federal programs. If the Democrats are in power, the underlying opinion is, "Texas is our state. We don't have to curry its favor." If the Republicans are in power, it as surely is, "We can't swing Texas anyhow. Let's forget her."

Texas needs two parties. The Panhandle needs representation. Even as Texas must wake up the federal government to its value, so must the Panhandle make its voice heard in the legislative halls of our state.

We need some "shake-up" in our government. We need new men, if necessary, a new party.

Let us forget party lines in the Panhandle this year. Let's elect new men, let's send new faces to Austin. Let's think of the good of the country in which we live.

60th ANNIVERSARY OF WOMAN'S COUNCIL

The Woman's Council of the First Christian Church celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of its organization Tuesday, Oct. 30, in the church parlors which were beautifully decorated in white chrysanthemums and purple asters, the colors of the society.

Invitations had been extended to the other church organizations of the town to join in the meeting and celebration. The program was opened with a song and pray in unison. A play "Aunt Martha Van Winkle Wakes Up" was given by Mrs. Irby Carruth, Mrs. Milton Sanders and Miss Sara Thompson which was greatly enjoyed. This was followed by a service of remembrance with Mrs. J. B. Ellis-ton acting as toastmistress; Mrs. P. V. Winstead, represented the Past; Mrs. N. E. Root, the Present, and Mrs. Johnson the Future. Each of these passed by the large cake and lighted the large candles placed in the center which were surrounded by 60 smaller ones.

"Faith of Our Mothers" was sung by all, and Miss Vera Crawford gave the devotional, which was followed by a duet by Misses Florence Root and Betty Ruth Solomon singing "The Love of Christ Constraineth Us."

The service of Consecration was quite pretty and impressive. The presidents of the other organizations represented were asked to come forward and each light a candle. The other guests were then requested to light the remaining candles on the cake. The song, "Follow On" was sung during this lighting service. The group was dismissed with the Missionary Benediction, after which Angel Food cake, tea and coffee were served to about a hundred guests and members.

GARRISON H. D. CLUB HAS MEETING

The Garrison Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Kinsey, October 24. Seven members and four visitors were present. Miss Bass gave a demonstration on canning tomato juice. Pumpkin pie was served at the conclusion of the demonstration.

HOME DEMONSTRATION COUNCIL MEETS

The Council of Randall County Home Demonstration Clubs met on Oct. 27 in the Federated Club room in Canyon. Ten of the eleven organized clubs were represented.

Following the roll call and reading of the minutes, reports from various committees were called for. Miss Bass called a meeting of the year book committee for Nov. 3. Plans for the 1935 Year Book will be completed at that time. Miss Bass asked that the club secretaries send her a list of new officers and demonstrators for the new year as soon as possible. She also asked that the yearly report be mailed in by the first of the month. Judge Slack then discussed the proposed amendments to the state constitution to be voted on at the election on Nov. 6.

All pantry demonstrators in the county were the guests of the Council. Miss Mashburn, our district agent, was also a visitor. She discussed the score cards of the pantry demonstrators. She then announced the winners in the pantry contest.

Miss Bass invited the Council to meet at her residence next month. New officers will be elected at that time.

MRS. W. E. KIRKPATRICK WITH BAPTIST LADIES

The Baptist W. M. S. met Tuesday in an all day meeting at the Church with the Associate President, Mrs. W. E. Kirkpatrick of Dimmitt teaching the Year Book to those present. There were thirty-five present.

Mrs. W. T. Gollehon and Mrs. Lester Dowell, both of Dimmitt, were with Mrs. Kirkpatrick.

The W. M. S. adjourned at 3 o'clock and went in a body to the Christian Church to help them celebrate their 60th anniversary.

Porter Pierce returned last Friday from a trip to Dallas, Fort Worth, Tyler and other Texas points.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crist and son of Amarillo spent Sunday with Misses Olive and Belle Schramm.

DINNER BRIDGE GIVEN FOR FRIDAY AFTERNOON CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Shaw of 1908 Sixth Avenue were hosts to members of the Friday Afternoon Bridge Club and their husbands last Friday night.

The entertaining rooms were beautifully decorated with a profusion of fall flowers placed appropriately about the rooms. A tasty dinner was served before play was begun.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kleinschmidt, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Word, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Knighton, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Warwick, Mr. and Mrs. Irby Carruth, Mr. and Mrs. Dan F. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smith, Mrs. Guy Harp, and Dr. R. A. Neblett.

CENTERVIEW H. D. CLUB NOTES

The Centerview Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Doris Gillham, Oct. 19. The day was spent in quilting and discussion of Achievement Day. Six members and four visitors were present for this meeting.

Club met again with Mrs. Alma Miller, Oct. 25. Miss Bass met with us and gave a discussion on Clothes Closets. Six members were present at this meeting.

A big day planned by the club will be Achievement Day, which will be held at the home of Mrs. E. W. Schaeffer, Nov. 2. Mrs. Schaeffer will display a well filled pantry. Also there will be many other exhibits.

LIBRARY CLUB TO SERVE TEA AFTER REPORT

The Library Club at the College will serve tea to the Women's Clubs, the County Judge, the City Mayor and Commission and other prominent people and friends of the Library when they meet Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Room 211 at the College to hear Mr. S. H. Condron's report on the American Library Association meeting that he attended in Tennessee.

This proves to be a very interesting report and should not be missed.

Scenes in Newest Stratoflight

After a daring 10-mile ascent into the stratosphere, seeking cosmic ray data, Dr. Jean Piccard, brother of the famous Belgian stratospherist, and his wife, Jeanette, below, landed their gondola on a farm near Cadiz, O., 7 hours and 48 minutes after they had taken off from Dearborn, Mich. Bereft of the bag, which was ripped to shreds by trees, the gondola is pictured above after the couple landed. Below, the balloon is shown during the ascent. This was the first stratosphere flight in which a woman had taken active part.

AS YOU LIKE IT CLUB WITH MRS. T. M. MOORE

Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. T. M. Moore entertained members and guests of the As You Like It Club at her home, 2007 Sixth Avenue, with an attractive Hallowe'en bridge party.

The rooms were beautifully decorated in yellow and orange chrysanthemums and nasturtiums, pumpkins, black cats and other seasonable decorations.

At the refreshment hour a delicious iced course, further carrying out the color scheme of orange and black with miniature pumpkins was served to Mrs. Wm. Ash, Mrs. A. W. Sternenberg, Mrs. C. A. Murray, Mrs. John Fry, Mrs. C. R. Flesher, Mrs. C. M. Presley, Mrs. N. E McIntire, Mrs. Clyde McElroy, Mrs. D. M. Stewart, Mrs. F. E. Savage, Mrs. J. J Walker, Mrs. T. H. Knighton, Mrs. J. W. Kleinschmidt, Mrs. Guy Harp, and Mrs. Ralph Rundle and Mrs. W. E. Rundle, of Earth.

WEST SIDE H. D. CLUB MEETS

An interested group of West Side Club members and visitors gave close attention to a delayed demonstration by Miss Bass on the ways of using ripe tomato products. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. A. Hartman last Monday afternoon. Eighteen members responded to roll call by the secretary, and there were eight visitors present.

After the demonstration further plans were made for the program for Achievement Day which will be held at the home of Mrs. C. L. Gordon-Cummings on Wednesday, Nov. 14. There will probably be a called meeting of the club before that time, and further plans will be announced.

SCHEDULE OF THE WEEK FOR MISS BASS

Monday, Nov. 5, Hyland Home Demonstration Club.

Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 6-7, attending District Conference in Amarillo with Miss Ruby Mashburn and a Specialist. On Wednesday, Mrs. John Haines will be hostess to the Lakeside Home Demonstration Achievement day program.

Thursday, Nov. 8, Garrison Achievement day program, Mrs. Noah Grimes, hostess.

Friday, Nov. 9, Mrs. C. S. Sanford, hostess at Achievement day program.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend these programs and see the work that has been accomplished this year.

WORK AWHILE PLAY AWHILE CLUB MEETS

Mrs. Stacy Howell and Miss Ruby Thompson were hostesses to the Work Awhile, Play Awhile Club that met Thursday afternoon at their home.

A beautiful eight-diamond star quilt was pieced for little Teddie Howell. Each one pieced two or more stars. Refreshments were served to the guests: Mrs. Burney Slack of Canyon, Mrs. B. D. Springer, Mrs. Lonnie Byars, Mrs. S. H. Hill, Mrs. E. N. Henry, Mrs. O. B. Vaughn, Mrs. W. A. Cates, and Miss Zora Cole.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Carl Schroeder on Nov. 8.

MISS GLADYS STEWART ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

Miss Gladys Stewart entertained a group of her friends with a masquerade party Tuesday night at the Palo Duro Club.

The club house was decorated with autumn leaves, pumpkins, witches and black cats. A log fire burned in the open fire place and ghosts moved about in the half light amid the shrieks of the guests.

Appropriate games were played and enjoyed and contests were entered into with enthusiasm. Wide-eyed guests beheld "The seven wonders of the world" and had their fortunes told by the one and only "Opal." Walter Cummings, Ralph Sanders and Bud McNeill played popular songs throughout the evening.

At a late hour refreshments of tasty sandwitches, cocoa and gingerbread were served to the fifty-three hungry and happy guests.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

There will be the regular service of evening prayer at this church next Sunday night, November 4th, at eight o'clock, when Rev. Warwick Aiken, minister in charge, will preach. Everyone is invited to attend.

The Memorial Service for students and friends of the college will be held here this afternoon at four o'clock. This is always a beautiful and impressive service, and it is hoped that many will join us in this tribute. Mr. Aiken will preach at this time, and the Holy Communion will be administered.

LUCKY 13's WITH MR. AND MRS. NEWLIN

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Newlin entertained members and guests of the Lucky 13 Club last Thursday night, October 25 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Thompson, 1808 fourth avenue.

Mild-Mannered Young Southerner Is Nemesis of Midwestern Outlaws

A SLENDER, soft-spoken and affable young man whom a panhandler wouldn't hesitate to approach is the dreaded foe of the midwestern underworld. He is Melvin H. Purvis, chief of the Chicago bureau of the Division of Investigation, who, in two short years, has proven the nemesis of the most daring criminals of the decade.

One night last July, a nattily dressed fellow escorting two women emerged from the Biograph Theater on Chicago's North Side. A man lounging near the show entrance glanced at the dapper one, and signaled.

Guns roared, and when the smoke cleared, John Dillinger lay on the pavement, his brief career of murderous violence as midwestern desperado and Public Enemy No. 1 at an end.

The ambush that ended his villainous career was arranged by the slim lounger who had signaled his death—Melvin Purvis.

It was Purvis who engineered the raid on a Chicago North Side barbershop which brought another ruthless public enemy, Verne Sankey, his dues. Sankey, charged with the abduction of Charles Boettcher II, of Denver, later committed suicide in the Sioux Falls, S. D., jail.

It was likewise the clerkish-appearing federal ace who taught the tough Touhy gang of Chicago that crime was unprofitable. It took time, but the indomitable little sleuth rounded up and herded into prison Roger Touhy and his lieutenants, involved in the kidnaping of John Factor and in other breaches of the law.

Then, Purvis played an important part in the search for Mrs. Berry V. Stoll, kidnaped Louisville, Ky., society woman, and in the hunt for Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., her abductor.

And, finally, it was Purvis and his men who charged into a farmyard near East Liverpool, O., and ended the homicidal career of Charles "Pretty Boy" Floyd, premier Oklahoma badman and public enemy. Cornered like a rat, Floyd had no chance to make one of the miraculous escapes for which he was notorious.

Persistence is one of Purvis' key traits. This he showed when, despite national derision and a score of heart-breaking setbacks, he kept stubbornly on Dillinger's trail until his job was done.

Thoroughness is another of his characteristics. When Dillinger was out of the way, Purvis tied up the loose ends of the case by rounding up the desperado's lawyer and investigator, the doctor who allegedly performed "face-lifting" operations on Dillinger, and others said to have harbored the gang chief.

In the brief space of a few months, Melvin H. Purvis, above, chief of the Chicago bureau of the Division of Investigation, accounted for two of America's foremost public enemies: John Dillinger and Charles "Pretty Boy" Floyd. Floyd is pictured below on an East Liverpool, O., morgue slab, his crime-ridden career at an end.

And these Purvis traits bode ill for "Baby Face" Nelson, alias Lester Gillis, who slew a federal agent in Wisconsin's woods last April; and any other big-shot desperadoes still at large.

• • •

BORN 31 years ago in Timmonsville, S. C., Purvis is a lawyer turned detective. He studied for the bar after two years at the University of Southern California. Six years ago the government snapped him up for investigation work, assigned him to duty in the Carolinas and Texas.

Then he was made head of the Birmingham bureau of the Division of Investigation. Making good, he was sent to Chicago in 1931 and plunged into investigation of the collapse of Samuel Insull's industrial empire.

If outlaw terrorism continues to subside in the midwest, a lion's share of the credit will belong to this mild-mannered Carolinan.

The child was one year and seven months of age.

HAS GOOD WHEAT

Chas. Sutton was in the city yesterday, and states that he has the best wheat that he has had since 1924. He got his wheat in early, and his section received ample rains.

R. H. Wright returned Monday from Mineral Wells where he spent two weeks on a vacation.

N. E. McIntire returned Sunday from Nacoma and Longview where he visited last week.

Instant Heat

... when you want it!

Patience is a virtue, but it doesn't thrive very well in a chilly atmosphere. When you're cold you want heat without waiting—comfort and health demand it.

That's one thing about a Gas Radiant Heater—it's always ready for instant action. Just the touch of a match and it leaps into life, flooding the room with instant heat.

In use or out, a Gas Radiant Heater adds a touch of cheer to any fireplace. And they're so convenient and inexpensive to use. Many attractive models to choose from at your gas appliance dealer's. See them today.

THE GREAT AMERICAN HOME

Wayside Items

The weather is ideal, neither hot nor cold. Jack Frost has "stepped out in spots." Thin ice Oct. 28. Severe weather predicted has been delayed.

George Hancock and wife from Pampa and Joyce Lane of Wayside left here Thursday night for El Paso, returning Sunday. They visited in Juarez, Mexico, and report an enjoyable trip.

Mrs. Bernice McNiel, Graham City, has recently had the house on her property here improved. She now has four nice rooms and a bath, which adds much to the comfort of the occupants.

Rev. N. S. Daniel, wife and sons, were with us last Sunday. He gave us two excellent sermons. This was his last appointment for the conference year. We are hoping that "the powers that be" will see fit to return these good people to the Vigo circuit.

There will be a good program and pie supper at the Wayside school building Saturday night, Nov. 3rd. Proceeds for the Benevolences of the Methodist Church. Everyone is invited to come and help us.

Jerry Lane Hancock, who has been visiting with her grandparents here for some weeks, returned with her parents to Pampa, Sunday. We will miss her much.

Mrs. J. M. Gillham returned from Canyon Friday, somewhat improved in health. Still unable to be left alone. She is with her granddaughter, Mrs. Hazel Pounds. She was delighted to have Rev. and Mrs. Daniel visit her Sunday. She gave them a generous donation on their salary which was much appreciated.

John T. McGehee and Henry Harrell left Saturday for the former's ranch in New Mexico. They will visit J. M. McGehee at Gallegos, N. M., before returning.

J. S. Sluder and family visited the parental Sluder home Sunday.

M. L. McGehee made a trip the past week to the Kansas City markets with cattle.

BEAT TULIA!

THE EAGLE'S TALE

EX-STUDENT EDITION

VOLUME NO. 9 | CANYON, TEXAS, NOVEMBER 1, 1934. | NUMBER 8

EAGLES PLAY TULIA HOME COMING GAME HERE FRI.

Did all uv ye kids hev' fun Hollerween nite? I shore did! I went to a little cuntry hop, an nex' mornin' when I woke up, Mirandy she'd sent my shoes ta th' shoe shop fer repairs. She sed they never hed no soles on 'em, but I wuld swore they hed soles on um when I left home Wednesday nite.

By the way, Ed, Hallerween wuz Wednesday nite. I jes thot I'd tell ya, cuz I nuticed ye wuz wearin' a Hallerween mask at th' ball game Saterday nite. I gess thet wuz why yu beet them Vega kids so bad. They must uv been skeart uv ya!

All I ben hearin' th' last fue daze is ex-students. I never new there wuz so meny important ones till now.

Ya know Tyson and Gailen lived out in Mexico all summer. (They wuz married in June). When they built ther nue log house, Gailen jes kep fussin' about the nue paint sa awful, so Tyson prescribed th' followin' recipy to spray in th' house: A gallon uv onion juice with half as much garlic juice mixed with it. Then he told Gailen to spray it in th' house, an' he sed if thet wouldn't work to try another coat uv paint; so they ended up by addin' more paint. Gailen is rite here in this town now an' Tyson is cumin' soon, cuz ther' gonna spen' th' winter here.

Ya know, Doug Henson wuz a mighty fine ol' boy! I bet his son is a wunderful guy when he grows up. I'd shore lak ta see his wife. I bet she's a peach.

Armor Lee, who is this Messy boy I've ben hearin' about? You've been seen around with him several times lately, hevnt ye? I've herd several kids say it wuz his car ya liked, but I know it's th' boy, not the car. By th' way, Armor hev ya forgot thet little boy with th' black wavy hair ya wuz always with last year? I wunder wher Ernest is now, anyway?

R. L., yer a keen ol' kid. Too bad yer ol' gal, Eula Lee, hed ta go an' git married on ya. Ain't ye fraid ye'll git lost in thet big city uv Ft. Worth? I hear thet T. C. U. is a purty nice schule, tho An say, I hev sum friends in Ft. Worth; so if ye see any uv um, well, tell em hello fer me.

Tomorrer is ol' Israfel's burthday. I wuz wunderin' if he culd cum ta th' ex-student banquet. He promised ta be arful sweet, an' 'bout th' only present he ever gits is a sack uv gum drops whut I give him. Just think, he'll be 13 years old, Fri., Nov. 9, an' he's jes as good lookin' as he every wuz.

You Eagle boys better pore it on, an' beat them Tulia Hornets. Show 'em ye c'n take their stings, cause I got 12c bet on thet game, and I'm a aimin ter divide me winnins' with ye Eagle boys if ye'll fight hard fer ol' Canyon.

Goodbye Studes & welcome exes.

CACTUS CAL.

P. S. Helen, since when hev you turned Spanish? Did you say his name wuz Emilio Gonzales? Do you still luve him an' think he's purty? He told me he still luved you an' tho't ya wuz sweet.

EX-STUDENT LOYALTY

What does Canyon High School mean to the exes? During homecoming, will all of those, that possibly can, come back to see what the young generations have done to their old Alma Mater? The present students of Canyon High School work hard every year in order that homecoming will be a success. In order to show their appreciation and loyalty to C. H. S. the ex-students should turn out 100% for all activities planned for them.—An Ex-student.

Athalie Overton, Armor Lee Greenfield, and Helen Hardman visited the Press Club Monday.

Yvonne Thomas was in Amarillo Saturday.

Cloie Hall visited in Amarillo Sunday.

Miss Mattie Jordan visited in Tulia over the week-end.

O. T. Barker spent Thursday in Amarillo.

Condron Speaks To Parent-Teachers In Meeting Thurs.

The Parent-Teachers Association met in the auditorium of Canyon High School, Thursday night, October 25, with Mr. S. H. Condron as principal speaker.

The following program was given:

Devotional, Mrs. A. W. Sternenberg.

Group singing, Mrs. H. A. Brown.

Special music, Miss Frances Usery.

Safety program, Miss Annis Smith's room.

Business session.

"The School Looks to the Future," Mr. S. H. Condron.

Mr. Condron said that his subject could just as easily be called "The Future Looks to the School." In his talk, Mr. Condron urged the parents to vote against the proposed constitutional amendment to limit state tax income in Texas on a population basis. Mr. Condron said that this amendment was "being pushed by organizations which are trying to avoid any kind of taxes."

Mr. Condron complimented the fourth grade children on their program. "He said, "Children are as vital to this nation as the battleships and should be given equal support."

After the program, a social meeting was held in the gymnasium. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served.

Change In School Curriculum Topic Of Cook's Talk

Dr. Harris M. Cook spoke to the faculty October 24th. The subject of discussion was, "Changes in the Public School Curriculum."

Dr. Cook discussed the background and development of the school curriculum. He gave a brief history of the state program which is being started in Texas at the present time.

Dr. Cook laid emphasis upon the new social, economic, and political changes which have taken place within the last three years. He said that the schools would have to change their courses to meet the new issues.

This was the first of a series of discussions that will be given upon the subject of the school curriculum.

After the general program, refreshments of pumpkin pie and coffee were served by Mr. Carruth, Mr. Pope, and Miss Fronabarger.

PTA First Meets October 1920 With Mrs. Cash President

In October, 1920, the first P. T. A. was organized with Mrs. Harvey Cash as president.

She served three years. During her first term the P. T. A. brought the first school nurse to the school and introduced story hour for children. Mrs. Cash resigned, and Mrs. John Fry was elected president in her place.

In 1925, Mrs. R. McGee was elected president and served two years.

In 1926 the district meeting of the P. T. A. was held here.

In 1927, Mr. C. W. Williams, principal of the grade school, was president.

Mrs. A. W. Sternenberg was next president, and served for several years.

Mrs. T. H. McDonald and Mrs. W. M. Robinson served one year each.

Mrs. Alfred Bellah is the present president. The P. T. A. planted the trees and grass in front of both of the buildings. In 1931 and 1932 they had a Red Cross nurse here to examine the children of both schools. The District P. T. A. is meeting here again next spring.

Ex-Student Officers

"I was just a kid and had a good time in high school," said Mrs. Harry Wood, present ex-student president, as she told of her C. H. S. days. Mrs. Wood won an essay contest in Spanish, the subject in which she majored in college. She attended the last two years of high school life in the new building; so she did get to help to christen the high school. Mrs. Wood belonged to the glee club, and she played basketball.

The vice president, Robert Black, is a graduate of '33, and his school life was quite full. "Bob" played football for four years. He lettered as quarterback in his senior year. He was also quite active in the speech department. He debated in his senior year, and played a role in the senior play.

Miss Annis Smith, fourth grade teacher, is secretary and treasurer of the exes. Miss Smith is a graduate of the year of 1926. She was a star forward and she now coaches basketball in C. H. S.

Sarah Bonnie Bourn and Mary Ella Lowe visited in Arney over the week end.

Rubye Foster visited at Lockney over the week end.

Debate Club Meets; Plan Debate, Books

The second meeting of the Debate Club was held Thursday, October 25. Fifteen members were present.

The club asked Irene Thompson, Marye Ella Lowe, Hal Gamble, and Mable Schmitz to debate at the next meeting on the Interscholastic League, subject for this year, "Resolved, That the Government Should Own and Operate all Electric Light and Power Utilities."

New handbooks are being ordered for the debaters.

Girl Basketeers Active Since 1926

Girls' basketball has always been a feature sport in the high school since Canyon has had a public school, but match games with other towns were not played regularly until the new high school gymnasium was built in 1923.

In 1925, the girls' team took second place in the tournament at Hale Center. First place was won at Dalhart in 1926.

Although they did not enter any tournament in 1927, they had a successful year.

In 1928 and 1929 they went to the tournaments at Panhandle, but were unable to win any honors.

The years of '30, '31, and '32 were very successful. Although no honors were won in the tournament at Tulia in 1930, one of the players, the former Nelavee Roberts, made all district player. They entered the tournament at Tulia again in 1933, but failed to take any places.

ONE ROOM FRAME STRUCTURE WAS CANYON'S FIRST SCHOOL

The first school building in Canyon was a one-room frame building, located west of the public square. This building was replaced by a large three room frame building. In 1900 another large room was added.

Replacing this building, a two-story, four-room building was erected in 1904 at a cost of $12,000. Four rooms were added on the west side of it in 1909, requiring a second bond issue of $10,000.

A bond issue was passed in 1919, and the present 92,000 dollar building was built in 1923. It is made up of 16 class rooms, an auditorium with a balcony, a gymnasium, a book room, two executive offices, two locker rooms, and a study hall with a library. The building is located at the west end of fifth avenue.

In 1927, a two-story, brick elementary building was erected just south of the high school building. It has 14 class rooms, a study hall with a library, gymnasium with a stage, one office, and a book room.

On the campus trees, grass, and flowers have been planted.

Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel shopped in Amarillo Saturday.

Statistics Show Students Loyal

Are the Canyon High School students loyal to the football games? Yes, say the absence statistics.

During the first six weeks of school, one hundred and seventy-nine absences occurred, and eighty-five of these occurred the day of the Dumas-Canyon football game. This means that nearly fifty percent of the high school students attended this game which was held at Dumas.

Ninety-eight percent of the students were absent one or more times during the six weeks.

Gridiron Gossip

BY A GRIDSTER

The Eagles will pit their competitive strength against the Tulia Hornets Friday afternoon at the annual homecoming game and it will be a classy, and fierce affair from the start to finish. This game is of vital importance to each school and the outcome of the district title.

Coach Jones, in doing everything he can to help the boys, has been drilling them on various phases of offense and defense during the first part of the week, and the boys are co-operating remarkably well. The Eagles will be in line for the championship if the outcome of the fray will be in their favor. The only other contender will be the Hereford Whitefaces; they have an accomplished ball-club. The Canyon boys will win this game if they keep plugging away, never tiring, and use superb blocking and tackling throughout the game.

The Eagles' convincing and decisive victory over Vega changed the aspects of the Tulia-Canyon game. While the Hornets thought the coming game would be comparitively easy, they are now having something to think about.

So, all you students, faculty members, ex-students, and backers be out at the game on homecoming next Saturday afternoon, cheering for the Eagles, and boosting them on to the district crown.

Jean Slack was the hostess Friday night at her home to the following: Carolyn Mayfield, Billy Louise Greenfield, Fay Plaster, Mary Catherine Wirt, Marielle Oldham, Anna Mayo Sharp, Jack Middleton, Jack Inman, John B. Pope, J. C. Bellah, Melvin Calliham, Forest Hill, Fred Sprenger, Nelson Robinson, Sarah Slack, Jimmie Sal Slack, and Rena Beth Bellah.

Bill Cone was in Amarillo Sunday.

Like Parents, Like Children

History repeats itself in names, education, appearance, and even in expressions, tastes, and dispositions sometimes.

Education is one of the most important of these. What would the teachers of long years ago think if they should come to school and find their former students grown small again?

"Impossible," they'd say. Maybe it is, but twenty-four students, whose parents attended school here in the years past, are enrolled in Canyon High School and Grade School at the present.

If you can't believe it, look around for: Billie Bee and Natalie Flesher, Lorenzo, Mary Katherine, Carlee, and Wayne Wirt, Shirley Harrell, Carolyn and George Mayfield, Sanford, George, and Evelyn Black, Jack and Marielle Oldham, Martha Lee and Claudine Foster, Winnie Dee, E. F., and Harley Gene Hicks, Hudson Prichard, Jr., Clarence Eugene and Thomas Harrell Thompson, J. C., Robert, and Renna Beth Bella, Kenneth Black, and J. A. Tate.

Eaglee Score 38-0 Win Over Vega In Conference Game

The Eagles annexed another conference victory last Saturday night by trampling the Vega Longhorns 38 to 0.

The Longhorns were lighter and less experienced than the Eagles; this accounted for the difference in the score.

Although Vega received Canyon's kick-off and marched steadily down the field for the first few plays, they were quickly repelled by the Eagles.

Brooks made many good runs and accounted for 14 of the locals' points.

The Eagles stacked up 166 yards from scrimmage and lost 5. While Vega made only 32 yards from scrimmage and lost 2. The Eagles made 15 first downs to their opponents' 3, and Canyon punted twice for a 40 yard average, while Vega punted 6 times for a 26-yard average.

First Grade Visits G. W. Cox Farm

Grades 1A and 1C visited the G. W. Cox farm Friday afternoon. This trip, which was taken in the school bus, was a part of their farm unit work.

According to Miss Pronabarger they were very graciously received and escorted over the farm by Mrs. G. W. Cox.

The students first visited the farm house and basement. The basement was filled with sacks of potatoes, canned fruits, vegetables, and meats, being stored for the winter. The next visit was to see the cows and calves. From there they went to see the pony, and each was given a ride on the pony.

The last place was to see the deer, the kind Santa drives to his sleigh. According to Mrs. T. M. Collins they enjoyed this visit most of all.

Mrs. Collins stated that the town children enjoyed their ride on the school bus almost as much as the trip to the farm.

Purple Peps Organize, Sept. 20, 1926

On September 20, 1926, a group of girls met in the high school auditorium to organize a pep squad. The name of Purple Peps was chosen for the organization. Lenna Foster, who is now a member of the Canyon Elementary School faculty, was chosen president, and Helen Woods, yell leader.

Woods, Stewart, Leaders

The following year, September 15, 1927, Helen Woods and Dannie Mac Stewart were yell leaders, and Miss Jewell Brockette was elected sponsor. Several new members were elected, and several parties and picnics wre given, the most successful being the entertainment in honor or the Tulia and Canyon football teams.

Rusk Sponsor in 1928

In 1928, Miss Stella Rusk was sponsor of the Purple Peps. Dannie Mac Stewart and Glenyce Young were pep leaders, with Willie Brooks, president.

Greenfield President in '29

With Miss Rusk as sponsor again, the Purple Peps elected, in 1929, Ruth Greenfield, who is also a member of the Canyon Elementary School faculty, as president, and Elizabeth Jameson and Bettye Sternenberg as leaders, with Lucille Davault as assistant pep leader.

Miss Rusk was also sponsor of the pep squad in 1930. Charline Wiseman was president, and Bettye Sternenberg, Elizabeth Jameson and Lucille Davault were pep leaders.

Murrell Sponsor in '31

Miss Ethleen Murrell sponsored the Purple Peps in 1931. Rosa Cash and Celestine McGee were pep leaders, and Katye B. Lowe, president.

Reorganize in '32

The Purple Peps were reorganized in 1932, with Mrs. Lee Foster as sponsor. Rosa Cash was re-elected pep leader, with Mable Schmitz as her assistant. Margaret Tankersley was president. Forty-two new suits were ordered: the skirts and sweaters were purple with the white letters C. H. S. across the front of the sweaters.

Schmitz and Price, Leaders

Mrs. Lee Foster was again sponsor of the Purple Peps in 1933. Armor Lee Greenfield was president of the club, with Mable Schmitz and Wilma Price as yell leaders. A white pep squad, consisting only of freshmen, was organized to assist the Purple Peps. Their suits were white turtle-neck sweaters and white skirts, with white tams.

Present Organization

Irene Thompson is president of the pep squad, and Mable Schmitz and Wilma Price were re-elected as pep leaders. Carolyn Mayfield was elected to take the place of Wilma Price, while she was unable to lead because of a broken arm. The White Peps are again active this year, with sophomore members added to the original freshman plan, because of lack of suits.

The pep squad has in its membership this year 62 girls; 42 Purple Peps and 20 White Peps. The squad has received many nice compliments from the town, and according to Mrs. Foster, it is accomplishing a great deal.

Present plans are that next year's pep squad will receive new suits.

Appeal For More Experienced Band Players Is Made

At band practice Tuesday night, October 23, Mr. H. S. Strain, Director of the Municipal Band, made a personal appeal for more experienced band players.

Mr. Strain particularly urged town people who have had any experience at all or even town people who are interested, to see him about playing instruments in the band. Trombone, base horn, and alto players are lacking at this time.

"Those persons who will be able to play in the band only this year, such as high school seniors, are welcome, of course," Mr. Strain stated, "but those persons who will be able to continue their work for a number of years are needed immediately."

The band meets regularly for practice every Tuesday and Friday evening. They have played at two football games in the new uniforms and at one game without uniforms.

The band now consists of 18 regular members, including several players in the college band.

Past Eagles Find Prominent Places In Sports Field

Many of the athletes of Canyon High School are still outstanding in sports. Among those are Cleveland Jones, who is the coach of the Eagles; Pat Gerald, who is coaching at Panhandle High School; Henry Wiggins, one of the best athletes that Canyon has produced, is Freshman Coach at Southwestern College, Weatherford, Oklahoma.

Only one of the ex-Eagles is playing professional football. He is the well-known Eagle and Buffalo star, "Cow" Williams, who is now playing in Memphis, Tenn.

George Murphy, another ex-Eagle is now playing baseball for City League in Los Angeles.

The Eagles that made teachers of themselves are: D. Lowery, teaching at Quitaque, and John Gillham, teaching at Carey, near Childress, an official in sports.

There of the ex-Eagles are now playing on the freshman team at W. T. They are making regulars and are outstanding players on the team. They are: "Scoop" Elliston, George Brasuel, and T. V. Slack.

Help Keep Canyon Clean!

Youngest Grad 14, Oldest Grad, Well—

Ages are just like hours; they increase as days go by.

Back in 1903, Deeme B. McGue was the youngest graduate of C. H. S. And last year, Lee Christine Cousins was the youngest. Mr. McGue was 14 then; he is 45 now. Miss Cousins was 16 last February 21.

Miss Columbia Redfearn is the oldest living graduate of Canyon High School, and she was graduated in 1903. She would not state her age, don't tell anybody, but it is rumored about town that she was 25 when she graduated.

OLD RIVALS TO MEET IN GRID BATTLE AT 2:30

LARGE CROWD OF EX-STUDES ARE EXPECTED TO SEE GAME

By Hal Gamble

On Canyon High School's Homecoming, the Eagles will tangle with the Tulia Hornets in the homecoming feature. The game will take place on the Buffalo Field, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

If dope counts anything, this will make the game an interesting one. Tulia beat Vega 38 to 0, and last week the Eagles accomplished the same defeat with exactly the same score. The teams are very evenly matched in size. The Eagles' average is only 2 pounds more than the Hornets.

Tulia has suffered one conference defeat, while the Eagles' conference standing is 100 per cent.

The fact that a touchdown has not been made against the Eagles on their own field this season, proves the strength of the defense.

Probable starting line-ups:

Canyon		Tulia
Ellison	re	Fletcher
Bewley	rt	Reddell
W. Cox	rg	Burrows
Wooten	c	T. Toone
Black	lg	W. Toone
Johnson	lt	Staggs
Childers	lt	B. Reddell
H. Lisle	qb	Vandergriff
Brooks	fb	Garrison
Solomon	rh	Buchanan
L. Lisle	lh	Butler

PEP SQUAD TO GIVE FEED

A big feed given by the Canyon pep girls will welcome the football boys of Canyon and Tulia and the Tulia Pep Squad Saturday after the game.

The grade school gymnasium is to be decorated in Canyon's colors, purple and white, and in Tulia's colors, maroon and white.

The pep girls annually give the football boys a social, and this year's occasion also returns Tulia's welcome of the Eagles of '33.

Twenty Courses Added to C. H. S. Since 1922-'23

There have been twenty new courses offered in Canyon High School since 1922.

In 1922, freshmen could take English, Early European History, algebra, Latin, and general science. Sophomores were offered English, physiography, physiology and hygiene. The juniors had to choose English, geometry, American History, Latin, and chemistry. The seniors could choose from English, Virgil, physics, economics, civics, commercial arithmetic and trigonometry.

Since that time, several freshmen subjects have been added. Home economics and manual training were offered in 1924, for the first year in the new building. Vocations was first offered in '30 and music appreciation in '34.

The sophomores' curriculum also had biology, which first offered in '24, manual training, '24, commercial arithmetic, '26, commercial geography '26, agriculture '28, World History '32, and general business training '34, have since been offered.

Spanish I and II were first offered in '28 and mechanical drawing '24, junior and senior subjects have been added.

The addition to the senior curriculum since 1922 has been solid geometry, '24, commercial law '26, journalism '33, typing '34, Texas History '33, and commercial art '34.

Cold? Try The Grandstand

Jumping, bouncing, and yelling, the occupants of the center section of the grandstand occasionally noticed the progress of the game Saturday night.

This craziness is catching from all appearance. The pep leaders started jumping up and down, side ways and every other way, then the first row of pep girls. The remaining girls joined, and in the end all boys and girls back of the pep squad had caught it, whatever it's called.

If it was something they had drunk, the rest of the grandstand must have felt slighted.

The fact is that that there would have been only one other resort: that of setting fire to the grandstand to keep warm.

Canyon High School Awards 32 Senior Classes Diplomas

Canyon High School has seen 32 graduating classes since its beginning in 1902. In 1902 Vera Evans Odell Holbrock was the only graduate.

In 1903, Columbia Redfearn, who manages the Ladies Store in Canyon, was graduated. She was valedictorian of her class of seven members.

Graduates of 1904

Eleven students were graduated in 1904. Pins were awarded the graduates instead of rings as is done now. Harry Lair and Dixon Lair, now Mrs. John Davis, brother and sister, tied for the valedictory honor; but it was taken to a popular vote and Harry won by one point. During that term, 1903-04, Edna Wallace, a senior, was neither absent nor tardy. Marie Brandon was valedictorian of her class in 1905.

Eleventh Grade Added

There were eleven graduates in 1906. This year the eleventh grade was added to the curriculum. Out of the 11 graduates, ten were students that had already been awarded diplomas from the tenth grade.

Five students were graduated in 1907. Ida Rowan, now Mrs. J. C. Dowd, was valedictorian of her class.

Officers of the senior class of 1910 were Archie Key, president; Lilburn Thompson, vice president, and Gladys Rogers, secretary and treasurer. There were nine graduates. As do the seniors today, the seniors studied Shakespeare's "Macbeth."

1914 Class Leaves Plaque

In the year 1914, the senior class left to the school a plaque of the landing of the Pilgrims. This plaque is in the main hall of the high school building.

In 1916, thirteen pupils were awarded diplomas from the Canyon high school. Of these Irene Berry made the highest grades, and Ruth Hood, second highest.

Four Fosters Graduate

The following year, 1917, there were six graduates, four of them being Fosters. That year Lee Foster graduated; he was president of the ex-students last year, and works in the State Bank at Canyon.

In 1922 Donald Campbell was president of the senior class.

Later Graduates

The seniors won three of the celebrities in 1923: Eilene Cayton, all round girl, Rhoda Lou Lane, most beautiful girl, and John Burgan, most popular boy.

Thirty students were graduated in 1925. The high school favorites were from the senior class. They were the most popular girl, Zelma Robinson, and the most popular boy, Delbert Lowes.

There were 46 graduates in 1926. The officers of the senior class were J. D. Hazlewood, president; Newton Crain, vice president, and Mary Sue Sears, secretary. That year Alice King, now Mrs. Harry Wood, graduated; she is the president of the ex-students association this year. Ruth Strain was valedictorian and Newton Crain salutatorian. Contests were held to determine the most popular boy and girl, and the all-round boy and girl: J. D. Hazlewood, all-round boy, Ruth Strain, all-round girl, Buster Brown, most popular boy, and Cleo Norman, most popular girl.

In the senior class of 1927 Otis Higdon was president of the class.

First Hall Pictures

The 40 graduates of 1928 started the hanging of the senior pictures in the hall. Albert Brown made the highest grades, and Jessie Holcomb, second highest. Winston O'Keefe was president of the senior class.

In 1929 the graduating class, 49 members, left to the school the trophy case which sits in the main hall. Mary Lockwood Sternenberg won the Balfour Medal. This is the student which is the most outstanding in loyalty, scholarship, and achievement.

Largest Senior Class

There were 58 graduates in 1930. The class left the purple curtains at the front of the stage as a gift to the school. Dorothy Faye Rusk made the highest grades and received the Balfour medal.

The 42 seniors of 1931 had as their officers, Nancy Strain, president, who also won the Balfour medal, Hosea Foster, vice president, and Sybil Gidden, secretary and treasurer. The class favorites were Mildred Middleton and James Cabe. Also the senior basketball team won the intramural contest. The senior play was "Stop Thief."

Wilford Taylor was president of the graduating class of 1932 of which there were 45 members. Annie Johnson was valedictorian and Lilla Beth Burroughs, salutatorian. That year the class gave the school a radio. Clarence Wooten won the Balfour medal. The annual senior play, "Whoofenpoof" was also given.

The 42 graduates of 1933 left to the school, draperies for the windows in the auditorium. "Adam and Eve" was the senior play, and George Brasuel was the senior president.

Thirty-nine students were graduated from high school in 1934. Alton Brasuel was president of the graduating class; Lee Christine Cousins was valedictorian, and Lorene Mickle satlutatorian. Armor Lee Greenfield won the Balfour medal. The senior play was "Shirt Sleeves." The class left to the school the grey draperies at the back of the stage.

School News Outlet Grows From Column To Page

Canyon High School has had a varied number of outlets for school news, dating as far back as 1903, when the news column in the weekly paper was called "School Notes."

The name was changed in 1912 to "Public School Notes." These columns were made of contributions by various teachers and students. In 1913, the school published its first annual. Until 1926 the news column was called "Canyon Public School Notes." On October 26, 1926, the first "Eagles Tale" was published. There was no organized staff, but the next week Roger Shook was elected editor-in-chief, with Keith Donnell, Charles Strain, Jr., Lurline Bowman, and Jake Harrison assistant editors. Irma Hinkle was society editor with Wyatt Webb as feature editor. The paper was named "The Eagles Tale" by popular vote.

Donnell Editor in '27

In 1927, Keith Donnell was editor-in-chief with Margaret Laxson, Elmer Fite, Eleanor Simmons, and Jake Harrison assistant editors. Hannah McCormick had charge of the feature stories, and Elmer Wooten edited the sports column with Eugene Morris as his assistant. Opal Shuman had charge of the poetry department and Christine Upchurch edited the society department. Miss Myrtle Hood was the sponsor of The Eagles Tale, and there were four reporters besides the foregoing staff.

In 1928 The Eagles Tale staff was the same, except Opal Shuman and Eugene Morris were not on the staff, and Katye B. Lowe was added.

The year of 1929-30, Miss Katie McFarland was still sponsor, and Keith Donnell was still editor. During the school term of 1930-31 Miss Marguerite Dickenson sponsored the paper with Dorothy Faye Rusk as editor. Those on the staff were: Alton Donnell, Katye B. Lowe, Vincent Lockhart, Louise Wester, John Guthrie, Douglas Henson (Cactus Cal), and Dorothy Cash.

Purple Page Edited by Lowe

Vincent Lockhart was editor in 1930-31 with Louise Wester as assistant editor. Katie B. Lowe was editor of The Purple Page, a separate mimeographed publication. During this term, Dorothy Faye Rusk, Armor Lee Greenfield, and Mary Ella Lowe were elected to the staff.

Miss Dickenson still sponsored the paper in 1931-32. Vincent Lockhart was editor, and the following were added to the staff: Sarah Bonnie Bourn, Robbie Foster, Rubye Foster, R. L. Burnam (Cactus Cal), Kathryn Robinson, and Rosa Cash.

Louise Wester edited the paper in 1932-33. The staff and reporters were practically the same.

Robbie Foster was editor-in-chief of The Eagles Tale during the school term of 1933-34. Assistant editor was Hampton Lisle. There was a new sponsor, Miss Lois Goodrich, and 27 reporters.

The Eagles Tale is now published by Hampton Lisle and Bill Cone, co-editors. Rubye Foster is assistant editor, and Mary Ella Davis is secretary of the press Club. There are 32 members working on The Eagles Tale this year.

Miss Lois Goodrich was in Amarillo Saturday.

ORGANIZE EX-STUDENT ASSOCIATION IN '30

MARY LOUISE ANDERSON WAS FIRST PRESIDENT OF THE EXES

The Canyon High School Ex-Students Association was organized in October, 1930. The first banquet was held at the Methodist Church.

Sixty-five members were present at the first banquet. Mary Louise Anderson was elected president of the organization for the next year.

The second banquet of the Exes was held October 19, 1931, at the Christian Church. Eighty ex-students were present. The following officers were elected: President, Delbert Lowes; vice president, Lenna J. Foster; secretary, Olive V. Schramm.

The third banquet was held November 4, 1932, at the Presbyterian Church. Seventy members were present. A constitution was adopted. Officers were elected for the next year. They were: President, Lee Foster; vice president, Dorothy Faye Rusk; secretary, Dalma Fry.

The fourth banquet was held November 10, 1933, in the high school gymnasium. The following were elected to serve this year: President, Alice King Wood; vice president, Robert Black; secretary, Ann Smith.

To the Ex-Students

It is a genuine pleasure to greet the ex-students of the Canyon Public Schools again and to extend to you the most cordial invitation to return to your alma mater high school.

The Canyon High School Ex-Students Association has grown during a period of five years, into a strong, progressive organization which has as it's chief objectives, better educational opportunities for Canyon children and the promotion and maintenance of friendships and acquaintances.

We wish that it were possible for all of the hundreds that have attended the Canyon Schools to come back on November 3rd. Though this will be impossible, we trust that the many who do return will enjoy every minute of the time spent with old friends and among old scenes of the past.

The problem of what men are to do with their leisure time may be solved by these few fall frocks which button up the back.

But it would seem that it should be easy to make an honest living—there's so little competition.—Thomaston (Ga.) Times.

Wortham Buys a Printing Plant of Amarillo Firm

Fred E. Wortham is manager of the Standard Printing Company in Amarillo, taking charge of the business Saturday. The business formerly belonged to John Wall, who died last week.

Mr. Wortham has been in Canyon for several years. He has been connected with the Canyon News, resigning to become secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. He was publicity manager of the Clint Small campaign this summer and later with the Tom Hunter forces. He has been a printer for a number of years.

The Wortham family will continue to live in Canyon for the present.

W. T. Frosh Upset Wayland Eleven In 18-0 Victory

Last Friday night the West Texas Frosh upset the strong Wayland College eleven from Plainview in winning from them 18 to 0.

Taking the ball early in the first quarter the Frosh drove from their own 45 yard line with Murry doing most of the toting to score with Murry making the last jaunt of nearly 10 yards. Dow failed to kick the extra point.

In the third quarter the Fish again started a drive which ended in a score. Miller threw a 15 yard pass to Baggett who was downed on the three yard line. Dow plunged over for the score. Dow again failed to convert.

A pass led to the third score in the last quarter as Baggett took another 15-yard pass from Miller to cross the goal line standing up. Slack missed the extra point.

Outstanding for the Frosh in the line were Kennedy, guard, Cain, center, and Baggett, end. In the backfield Miller, Slack, and Dow all shared the burden with Murry.

Next Friday morning the Yearlings leave for Portales to play the Eastern New Mexico Junior College that afternoon. While little dope is available on the Portales team, they have several outstanding high school stars on the team, and appear to be one of the strongest junior colleges in New Mexico.

as lowering of street lighting and other municipal lighting charges. Substantial reductions have been made during the same period to industrial users and the public schools.

The last reduction made prior to the present announcement by the company was made March 1 of this year to commercial users. The present residential reduction coupled with the commercial reduction made this year places both the company and its customers in the position of being optimistic for the nearer return to normalcy.

The company expects to maintain, according to Mr. Pearson, the same high standard of service to the end that a policy followed for many years by the company and found to be very much worth while will continue to assist in building the towns served.

If Winter Comes, Can Table Tennis Be Far Behind? . . . California Nearly Had Monopoly on Major Golf Honors

BY PHILIP MARTIN

AS winter draws near, Americans begin to glance furtively toward their attics or wherever it is they keep their table tennis paraphernalia. The exciting parlor game is again beginning to weave its spell.

Soon, 2,000,000 citizens of our fair land will begin thumping the celluloid ball back and forth, furniture will splinter during leaps for truant pellets, and within a few months throughout the world table tennis fans, or fanatics, will focus their enthusiasm on a tournament such as that held in New York last April, attended by expert players from 25 nations.

Table tennis was born the early part of this century. After a short spell of popularity, it passed to the limbo of freak games. But unlike its cousin, miniature golf, table tennis was resurrected.

Shortly after the World War, the game popped up in Hungary and spread again like wildfire throughout the world.

• • •

TO many people, the game may seem sissified, but in reality it requires as much of a player as some of the major sports. If the energy expended each year by U. S. table tennists were harnessed, it would probably be enough to lift the Empire State Building a yard or so.

One factor that indicates the game will remain popular is that it's an ideal sport for the younger generation. It's one pastime at which kids, with one hand tied behind their backs, can beat their elders.

For instance, an Indianapolis boy and a New York girl copped the last national tournament. So even if creaking backs and sciatica bar some of the old fogies from the game, there'll still be an army of young fans to keep it going.

THE State of California almost secured a monopoly on America's three major golf trophies recently. Dorothy Traung, 20-year-old San Francisco sensation, in her first national adventure, very nearly conquered Virginia Van Wie of Chicago for the National Women's golf crown.

But experience told, and Miss Van Wie, in the last round, came from behind to win from her young competitor, and to cop the trophy for the third consecutive year; something only four women have done in 38 years.

If Miss Traung had won, Californians would have held the three great U. S. golf titles; Olin Dutra of Santa Monica is National Open Champion, and Lawson Little of San Francisco is National Amateur champ.

But even though she bowed to the invincible golf displayed by Miss Van Wie, it might be a good idea to keep your eye on the progress of Dorothy Traung. She's plenty good.

Vanderbilts War For Rich Child

Two socially prominent American women and a 10-year-old heiress to $4,000,000 play principal roles in a New York city court dispute over the child's custody. Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, above, aunt on the paternal side of Gloria Laura Morgan Vanderbilt, bottom right, has been charged with kidnaping the girl; while Mrs. Gloria Morgan Vanderbilt, bottom left, mother of the heiress, was called neglectful and irresponsible by relatives who testified in the case.
